

Kobold Hollows

By

Robert Hemminger

A fun fast adventure site for the tired adventuring group that needs a brake from battling dragons and dire world threats. What, you think Kobolds are too easy, well you might think again after this little gem of an adventure.

An Avalon Adventure for a 2 - 3rd level party attack and gather what spoils they can. The ogre takes what meat or treasure he can gather while the kobolds take what scraps are left. This has worked out quite well for the ogre and the kobolds have gained a big ally when they need one.

Background

Setting off a small road or trail lays a warren of nasty, sneaky kobolds. While as a general rule these little beasties are of little trouble for most folks, the lone travelers and the weak have been known to fall to their raids and desire to feast on fresh meat.

On moonless nights they steel out of their little warren and search for unlucky travelers, lost cows and the late night snack. Small bands of these little dog like creatures then sneak about in the undergrowth and brush of the area, snatching up frogs and small creatures, all being thrown into the communal pot for a good cooking and a gusty meal among their fellows. These small bands of scavengers number anywhere from a few to a score, but all are cowards and will never go after a lager group of people, not unless they gain some reinforcements first.

Near the warren lies a large cave and here sleeps and old ogre. Past his prime, Crag Tooth depends upon the kobolds to locate a fast meal. Then with his aid they all
