Getting Started

S&G scenario builder uses a simple system of charts to generate random scenarios for the game you will play. Self explanatory, and easy to use, you can use the system provided to generate games for any of your S&G genre sets.

The Basics

The system provided here is meant to be a springboard for your own imagination, so feel free to add to or to modify any of the results you generate to suit your needs and desires. Nothing here is written in stone, so have fun. As a general rule you will generate both the type of scenario to be played and the map board to be used. Designed to offer you plenty of options and results, the system is easy and fun to use.

Scenario Type

The first thing you will need to do is generate the type of scenario to be played. These scenario types will offer you the basics of the game to be played and present you and your opponent with several options to chose from. Once you have generate the type of scenario to be played, roll to find the map board configuration and size.

Before you can find out what sort of game you will play, roll to find out the point totals you will have to play with.

Roll 2D6	Points to be used Per side
2	Single Character each up to 10 points
3	10 points in total, no Solos
4	25 points total, no Solos
5 - 6	40 points total, Solos allowed
7 - 8	50 points total, Solos allowed
9 - 10	60 points total, Solos allowed
11	70 points total, Solos allowed
12	100 points total, Solos allowed

Once you have determined the size of the game, roll once on the chart below to find out just what sort of game it will be.

Roll 2D6	Scenario Type
2	Retrieval
3	Retreat
4	Ambush
5	Escort
6	Capture the Flag
7	Smack Down
8	All Out War
9	Capture the Leader
10	Rescue
11	Defend
12	Beach Head

Scenario Descriptions

Retrieval

In this scenario one side must reach a set point on the map board, gather up some vital gear or information, and then flee the map board with the needed stuff.

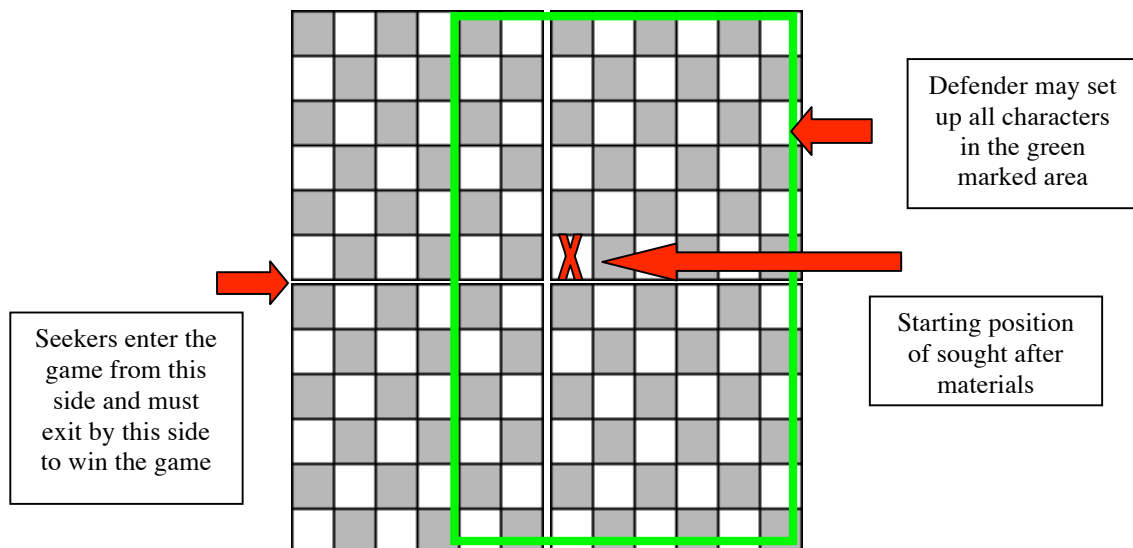

Before the game starts have each player roll 1D6. The highest rolling player then may pick whether they will defend or play the seekers. Once you know who is who, build the map board as normal. Before players set up their characters, place a marker in the dead center of the map board. The seeker player must get one of more of his or her characters next to their marked square. One character then must spend a move action collecting the needed material. Thereafter that character must exit the map board along the same side they entered.

The carrying character can hand off the sought after materials, to another character, but both characters must be in squares next to each other and both must use a move action to carry out the hand off. If a character that is carrying the materials is killed, or knocked out of the game for any reason, the materials being carried are dropped in that square. Any character may pick up the materials, by moving next to that square and spending a move action to gather it all up.

Should the defending player get his or her hands on the sought after materials, and exit the map board, by any side, they win the game outright. If the seeker player is able to exit the map board, by their entry side, with the sought after materials, then he or she wins the game.

Failure, by either player, to exit the map board with the sought after materials, results in both sides counting up victory points as normal, with the highest total winning the game. The game will last eight turns and the end.

Worlds of Wonder

Worlds of Wonder is a fast, simple to play RPG system designed for use by advanced players who wish to create detailed characters without having to roll on endless charts and deal with endless rules.

After 30+ years of playing, running and designing games, be they RPG's or board games, we at Avalon have come to one conclusion. Its not the game's rules that make it enjoyable, but the people you play with. With that in mind, Worlds of Wonder takes the most important aspect of any RPG, the character creation, and tries to offer players, and their GM, the tools needed to make the time spent playing together well worth the time spent creating the characters.

Worlds of Wonder Expansions

Want more Worlds of Wonder? Try one of the many expansions for the system. More monsters, foes, magic, skill sets and gaming stuff to keep you occupied for weeks, months, hell maybe for a lifetime. Ever expanding, the WoW system is made for gaming fun, so don't wait, have an adventure and enter Worlds of Wonder.

Arcana

Arcana is generic world, designed for use with any Fantasy RPG System, and so the information presented here and in other Arcana expansions will of course be a bit vague as to stats, levels and powers. The intention is to give the GM and players a world rich in personality, history and depth, one where they can seek adventure, but use any RPG system they feel most conferrable with.

The basics of the game world are presented here in the core book, but as expansions are released, the complexity of the world will grow as more and more of its history, dangers and wonders are explored. When it is all said and done, Arcana will become a vast world of detailed and expansive depth, one where that you and your friends can full explore.

Game Geek

Arcanum

Your training in the great halls of magic is now over, the years of hard work and difficult study finally coming to an end. Tomorrow you will begin your long journey, one each graduate of the tower must take, a journey of adventure, danger and riches. You will need all your skills to survive this quest, but you are ready, for your magic is strong and your will is like iron.

Arcanum is a simple to play, but complex game of adventure and magic, a game where players seek out the destiny of their character as they travel about the many magical lands on a unique game board. Players will need to achieve a set of victory conditions if they wish to win the game, conditions that they have set for themselves before the game even begins. Encounter monsters, dangers and companions to aid you in your quest, and along the way you may even join other players as you each try to achieve some great deed. That or you may find that you have to battle these players as they seek to steal from you all your gathered magic and riches. Allies can turn into enemies with a blink of the eye, so you must walk your path with caution.

Arcanum uses a unique system of "Chips" to resolve all conflicts, so no dice are ever used. This creates a game where luck has no place in the final outcome, but rather your skills at thinking ahead and planning determining whether you will win the game or not.

Arcanum comes with 15 fully illustrated, full color map tiles.

Over 80 spells, from four different fields of magic.

Over 100 other game cards, each offering information on quests, treasures, equipment, companions and more.

A fully illustrated rules book of over 30 pages full of charts, rules and information on how to play the game.

Player charts, handouts and other game aids to make the experience a faster, smoother game.

Special Abilities

- Savage Blow (Attack, 3)
Grom can make a single savage attack, often killing a foe outright with a single blow of his deadly scimitar. You must declare this ability is being used before Attack Dice are rolled. On a single attack, Grom may add +2 Attack Dice to his total for that attack. (With no limit to the number of dice that can be rolled)
- Command (Move, 2)
Grom may use his loud demanding bellows to command other orcs near by. When this ability is used, Grom may activate any one orc character, who is within five squares. This activated character may perform one action. (Note that the character may still take their normal actions when their turn comes up.) Gram may perform this ability but once a turn.
- Shatter Shield (Attack, 1)
Grom often shatters shields and weapons with his mighty blows. Declare this ability before the Attack Dice are rolled. If Grom scores a hit, instead of doing any damage, he may shatter, and thus destroy, a foe's readied weapon or shield (Your choice.) If the foe does not have a readied weapon or shield, then this ability has no effect.
Magical items gain a save. Roll 1D6, and on a roll of 6+, the item resists the effect. Per five points of the item's cost, over the first five points, adds an extra +1 to the die roll is gained.

Spirit Tiger

Battle Axe is a simple to play tabletop system for skirmish level battles. Using cards instead of dice, you will find the game to be less luck based and much more tactical in nature. The rules and cards provide here will be enough to get you started, and new characters and rule expansions are on the way so you can continue to increase both the size and composition of your War Bands.
